

RED HILL BAND

A COMMUNITY BAND
RED HILL, PENNSYLVANIA

Founded in 1900, the Red Hill Band is a 50+ member community band playing summer concerts throughout the suburban Philadelphia area. A family-friendly band, with music to please young and old alike.

Our all-volunteer members range in age from 15 to 95. We perform an extensive repertoire including Pop music, Broadway tunes, Big Band sounds, classic band repertoire and, of course, the finest in toe-tapping marches by John Philip Sousa and others.
